

CONDITION OF ENTRY FOR THE TRAIL RUN EVENTS

1. The DURBIE DASH does not make provision for refunds. Substitutions will be accepted.
2. Force Majeure

The events will proceed regardless of bad weather and will only be cancelled, re-routed or stopped for reasons of safety. The organisers reserve the right to cancel the event or parts of the event resulting from any act of God including extreme weather conditions, strike, war, riots, fire, flooding, legislation, insurrection, sanctions beyond reasonable control of the organisers of The Durbie Dash (any such event called "force majeure").

In such cases, any consequences with regards refunds or rescheduling will be issued at the discretion of the event organizers.

3. All photographic or video material of participants made by the organizers or their assignees during any activity is deemed to be part of the DURBIE DASH, shall be free for use by the organisers in any matter relating to the event at any time in the present or future.
4. Participants must attend prize giving, or they will forfeit their prize(s). Also, please note to qualify for category prizes there must be more than 5 entrants within that specific category.

Rules for The Durbie Dash

1. Every participant shall run carefully and with due regard to the safety of other runners and other trail users.
2. Every participant must comply with the instructions of a marshal, official and/or a traffic officer.
3. Every participant shall provide information requested by any marshal immediately.
4. All runners must at all times display his/her race number legibly in front on clothes.
6. Every runner shall identify him/herself and give his/her address on request to a marshal or any other participant requesting such information after a race incident.

7. Runners may not use a personal music system or a communication device whilst taking part in the event.
8. A participant shall not run with another person's number or timing identification.
9. A participant shall not use foul or offensive language to his/her fellow runners or to any marshal.
10. A participant shall not dispose of any litter along the course except in refuse bins.
11. A participant may not start or attempt to start before his/her designated start.
12. A participant shall provide reasonable assistance to any other participant involved in an accident while participating in the event.
13. Children under 10 must be always accompanied by an adult.
14. The winners will be judged as those who cross the finish line first, having completed the entire route, irrespective of time.
15. In case of dispute, the organisers reserve the right not to present any prizes.
16. Participant must attend award ceremonies. Prizes will not be mailed or delivered or kept for collection.
17. Further to rule 16, as this is a fun event, the organisers retain the right not to enter into a dispute of a competitive nature.
18. It is the participants responsibility to ensure that they carry enough liquid on route, a windshield jacket and basic emergency equipment and the emergency contact number.
19. In the event of a medical emergency, the organising bodies/authorities will use their discretion and follow procedures deemed necessary for evacuation and /or medical assistance thereof; for the account of the injured party.